To Whom It May Concern:

In our hour of need, we contacted the American Philatelic Foundation, and asked for help with the stamp collection that we'd just inherited. The response we received exceeded our expectations. The promptness and fairness we encounter all through our interaction with Mr. Michael DuBasso, leave no room for complimentary words. The actions were speaking themselves. We highly recommend Mr. Michael DuBasso and the American Philatelic Foundation to future parties interested in doing business with them. He is a carrying man that doesn't look aside when asked for help. One thing is for sure: whoever will use his and APF's services will not regret the choice made.

Thank you again for your professional service, Mr. Michael DuBasso.

Sincerely,

Gary E. Van Dyke
